

Do I Need to Update My Plans?

Fòs Feminista is the new name of International Planned Parenthood Federation Western Hemisphere Region. Fòs Feminista is a newly expanded international alliance dedicated to reaching women and girls with sexual and reproductive health care and defending their rights. While our name has changed, the core of our mission remains the same—and our reach has expanded to additional countries and partners, which will also expand the impact of your support.

To ensure that we receive your gift as you intended, please include our tax ID number (13-1845455), which remained the same when our name changed.

In many cases—especially if your plans are straight forward—you may not need to take immediate action. But there may be other reasons for you to consider updating your plans. When you do decide that it's time to revise your essential documents—your will or trust, beneficiary designation forms or advance directive—please know that our staff is here to help.

When Should I Revisit My Plan?

Here's a checklist of reasons you may want to revisit and revise your estate plan—or make a plan for the first time:

Yes	No
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Has it been three years or more since your last reviewed your essential documents?
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Have you recently retired or changes jobs?
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Has your marital status changed?
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Has your health status changed?
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Have you welcomed a new child or grandchild?
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Would you like to leave a gift to organizations you care about?

If you answered “yes” to any of these questions, it's time to create or update your plan.
